Reason(s) for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the instant claims define over the prior art of record because the prior art of record fails to teach a method for separating a target microorganism from a suspension by immersing a plurality of beads coated with antibody into the suspension and allowing the beads to capture the target microorganism. The beads are contained within the interior space of an enclosure having a pore size smaller than the size of the beads and larger than the size of the microorganisms. The beads are contained within its interior space, and is surrounded and enclosed therein. The disclosed enclosure defines over a membrane having beads embedded in its pores because such a membrane does not meet the definite of an enclosure having beads within the interior space and having pores that are smaller than the beads. In such a membrane, the pores are considered to be the enclosures because they contain the beads.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
